

DAY: Friday
DATE: October 20, 2017
SCHEDULE: Friday Schedule

HISTORICAL THOUGHT: Today October 20, 1818 The United States and Britain establish the 49th Parallel as the boundary between Canada and the United States.

MEETING & SPECIAL EVENTS

Football	Today vs Gunn 4:30 pm
Ron Freeman Water Polo Tourney	Today @ Monta Vista
Archery Club	Today @ lunch D104
Girls Field Hockey	Today vs Cupertino 3:30 pm

GENERAL INFORMATION

Congratulations to Marquesas on winning 1st Place and the grand prize of $1000 at the Rock and Roll Half Marathon Cheer/Dance competition! Marquesas competed against 13 other teams. Way to represent MV spirit!

Do you like coding? Come to Hack Club's meeting today in E204 to join our competition to develop a website or mobile app! See you there!

They call me the Hawkeye because I'm the hawt guy with a bow. If you're interested in becoming a hawkgy, come out to the archery club's meeting at Lunch in D104 today.

The Girl's Empowerment Project will be having a pad and tampon drive this week to donate care packages to those in need. Please donate any unopened pads and tampons, anything will help! You can find bins located in Ms. Belshe's room, B106, or in the library.

The Gender-Sexuality Alliance will be observing National Coming Out Day today at lunch in the Rally Court. Coming Out Day is a day to celebrate being LGBT and to be supported by friends. You are not required to come out, just to have fun! Anyone is welcome.