

DAY: Friday
DATE: April 13, 2018
SCHEDULE: Friday Schedule

HISTORICAL THOUGHT: Today April 13, 1960 The first navigational satellite is launched into Earth's orbit.

MEETING & SPECIAL EVENTS

Swimming

Today @ Homestead 3:30 pm

GENERAL INFORMATION

Are you interested in free pizza and churros? Come out to the auditorium during lunch today for THE LAST DAY OF "Why Jesus?" for a good message and food!! We will be ordering in 35 Costco pizzas and 150 churros so bring everyone you know! Christians and Non-Christians alike are welcome. REPEAT: this is the last day of the event. Excited to see you there!!

Are you tired? Stressed? Ready for break? Start the weekend right by coming to MV Culture Night TODAY after-school from 4-6PM. Join us for an evening of food, activities, and performances held in collaboration between MV's culture clubs. Attendance is free for all, so bring your friends! Food vouchers (granting food from each club in attendance) will be sold at the event for $10. All proceeds will go to Free the Children. Extra credit can also be earned for certain teachers, so make sure to be there!

Are you good at trivia? Wanna try your hand at getting jeopardy-style questions on history, science, and pop culture against your classmates? Sign up for Monta Vista's grade-vs-grade quiz bowl tournament soon, held at the Academic Courtyard every day through the next school week during lunch. Spots are limited, so sign up soon at mvqb.weebly.com!

We are looking for 20-25 students to judge at the District-wide ELD Speech Contest! As a judge, you'll be able to get free food and volunteer hours, so make sure to come! Contact Monta Vista NSS for more details: mvhs.nss@gmail.com

The Counseling Department at Monta Vista invites all students to participate in a 1-day seminar developed for individuals and their supporters who have experienced a significant loss in their life. Participants will gain an understanding of the healing process associated with grief as well as valuable tools for coping. Loss, whether it is of a job, a relationship, or an unexpected life change, is a universal experience. You are not alone. Talk to your Counselor or come by room A-112 at lunch on Monday April 23rd to learn more.

The MAT SHACK will be open one last time this year on FRIDAY at LUNCH time on April 27.